DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

- 1. The indication of allowable subject matter in claim 52 is withdrawn in view of the newly discovered reference(s) of Menard. Rejections based on the newly cited reference(s) follow. The Examiner apologizes for prematurely indicating allowable matter and the belated discovery of grounds for rejection.
- 2. Claims 18, 58-60, 62, 67, 91-93, and 97 are allowed. Claims 86-87, 89-90, and 94-95 recite allowable subject matter.

Claim Informalities

- 3. Claims 86-87, 89-90, and 94 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(a) because the meaning of the following phrase needs clarification: the at least on function.
- 4. Claim 95 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(a) because the meaning of the phrase "the unwanted signals" needs clarification. Because no unwanted signals were previously recited, it may be unclear as to what element this phrase refers. To further timely prosecution and evaluate prior art, the Examiner has interpreted this phase to refer to the unwanted signals that are recited in the next line of the claim, comprised in the encoded digitized signals.
- 5. The Examiner notes, without objection, the possibility of informalities in the claims. The Applicant may wish to consider changes during normal review and revision of the disclosure.

 In claim 94, the phase "a the audio signals" (next to last line) may be unintended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Menard

- 7. Claim 52 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Menard [US Patent Application Publication 2003/0013503].
- 8. Regarding claim 52, Menard [at 0053] describes an embodiment consisting of compatible intercom units, one device functioning as a remote control of the other. For the remote controller device, Menard describes the content and functionality of the recited limitations recognizable as a whole to one versed in the art as the following terminology:

first microphone [at claim 19, as microphone proximate remote audio]; processor for digitizing the microphone input [at 0038, as analog to digital converter];

transmitter for wirelessly transmitting digitized input to a device associated with a remote control apparatus [at claim 19, as processor to wirelessly transmit digital data (based on remote audio) to be received by local device receiving digital data];

enable microphone function that activates that first microphone to receive input [at 0020, as control switch illustrated as a push-to-talk (PTT) switch];

the enable microphone function is a two position on/off switch [at 0024, as switch may be a toggle switch].

Response to Arguments

- 9. The prior Office action, mailed December 17, 2003 (paper 4), objects to the specification and claims, and rejects claims under 35 USC § 102 and § 103, citing Houser and others. The Applicant's arguments and changes in RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION (WITH AMENDMENTS) filed March 22, 2004 (paper 6) have been fully considered with the following results.
- 10. With respect to objection to the specification as lacking proper antecedence for claimed matter, the changes entered by amendment claim subject matter that can be identified in the specification. Accordingly, the objection is removed.
- With respect to objection to the claims dependent upon rejected base claims, the claims are 11. no longer dependent. Accordingly, the objections are removed.
- 12. With respect to objection to claims 5, 6, 12, 22, 23-30, 37, 38, 76-85, and 88 as needing clarification, the objections no longer apply because those claims have been canceled.
- 13. With respect to objection to claims 86-87, 89-90, and 94 as needing clarification, the Applicant's arguments appear to be that the claims were amended for clarity. This argument is not persuasive because the amended phrase is not tin the claims. Accordingly, the objections are maintained.

Conclusion

The following references here made of record are considered pertinent to applicant's 14. disclosure:

Cuijpers et al. [US Patent 6,462,664] describes a remote control embodiment that activates a microphone function by a two-position switch.
